The advertisement for The Villa at St. Joseph's features a photograph of three elderly residents (two women and one man) sitting at a wooden table, smiling and engaged in conversation. On the table are several white cups and saucers, and a small plate of food. To the left of the photo is a logo consisting of a stylized green tree with a red heart in its branches, followed by the text "The Villa at St. Joseph's" in a serif font. Below the photo, a green box contains the phone number "(262) 694-5550" and the address "9250 29th Ave • Kenosha" with the hours "Monday - Friday 9am - 4pm". To the right of this box, the text "INDEPENDENT LIVING STARTING AT $670 PER MONTH!" is displayed in a bold, sans-serif font. At the bottom of the advertisement, a dark blue box lists several amenities in two columns: "24 - Hour Emergency Call System", "Daily Check-In System", "Monthly Light Housekeeping", "Monthly Laundering of Linens", "Weekly Grocery Shopping Trips", "Planned Activities", "On-Site Building Manager", and "Beautiful Landscaped Grounds & Walking Paths". A small reference number "WIC 5871 9221" is visible in the bottom right corner.
