Comments:

As realtors, we know that it's essential when we are farming to stay branded consistently in several places. Cartvertising is the hub of my marketing campaign. People see me on the carts more than anywhere else and it ties together everything else that I do. I live and work in a boutique community and it's important that I keep my name, my face and my reputation front and center. Cartvertising is a prime way to do this. It's been over 20 years and I just renewed again! I have been very happy With the results of my Cartvertising campaign over the years. I always tell anyone who asks that it's a very good program.
