Comments:

Hi Morgan, I have been advertising with Cartvertising for many years. Marina Del Rey is a highly competitive market and creating name brand recognition has been essential to my success. I understand the power of Branding and have blanketed the entire area with multiple forms of advertising including Cartvertising. I know that everyone in the area ends up in these stores on regular basis and sees my name and face week in and week out. People recognize me. Even visitors from other areas have seen the carts, recognize my long term presence and expertise and trust me with their listing or purchase. Cartvertising just makes sense. I'm at a point where I can reduce my advertising with other venues and use primarily carts to maintain my top-of-mind awareness as the GO-To agent in this market. I am also adding a fourth store in Venice. Cartvertising WORKS and I am committed to this program.
