Comments:

I have three of my locations currently running their ads in the nearest grocery store to their locations, and I'll tell you the redemptions are fantastic, in the return on investment is amazing. I am really looking forward to the second quarter because Tony told me that I would see the largest shift and redemptions right around week 14 to week 18. I love the fact that my ad is being placed into the hands of thousands of people in my neighborhood every single day, great brand recognition.
